A myriad of details comes into view as one gazes upon Washington. Clearly visible are the classes, activities, faculty, and the many students who make up Washington's vast student body. But delving deeper, we come upon something not so easily seen, although all are aware of its presence. It is this which makes Washington the institute of learning that it is and a place where each has an equal opportunity to develop his own interests and abilities. It is this which encourages all of us to work together for the common good. This binding force which is instrumental in learning is symbolized by a Paperclip.

This force encourages all of us to strive to achieve our goals. It encourages us to work to attain our best according to our capabilities. To reach these goals, each of us enlists the help of various tools. Whether it be a slide rule or an artist's brush, each is equally important as it assists us in our career at Washington. The Pencil, the universal tool, may serve to represent these tools of learning.

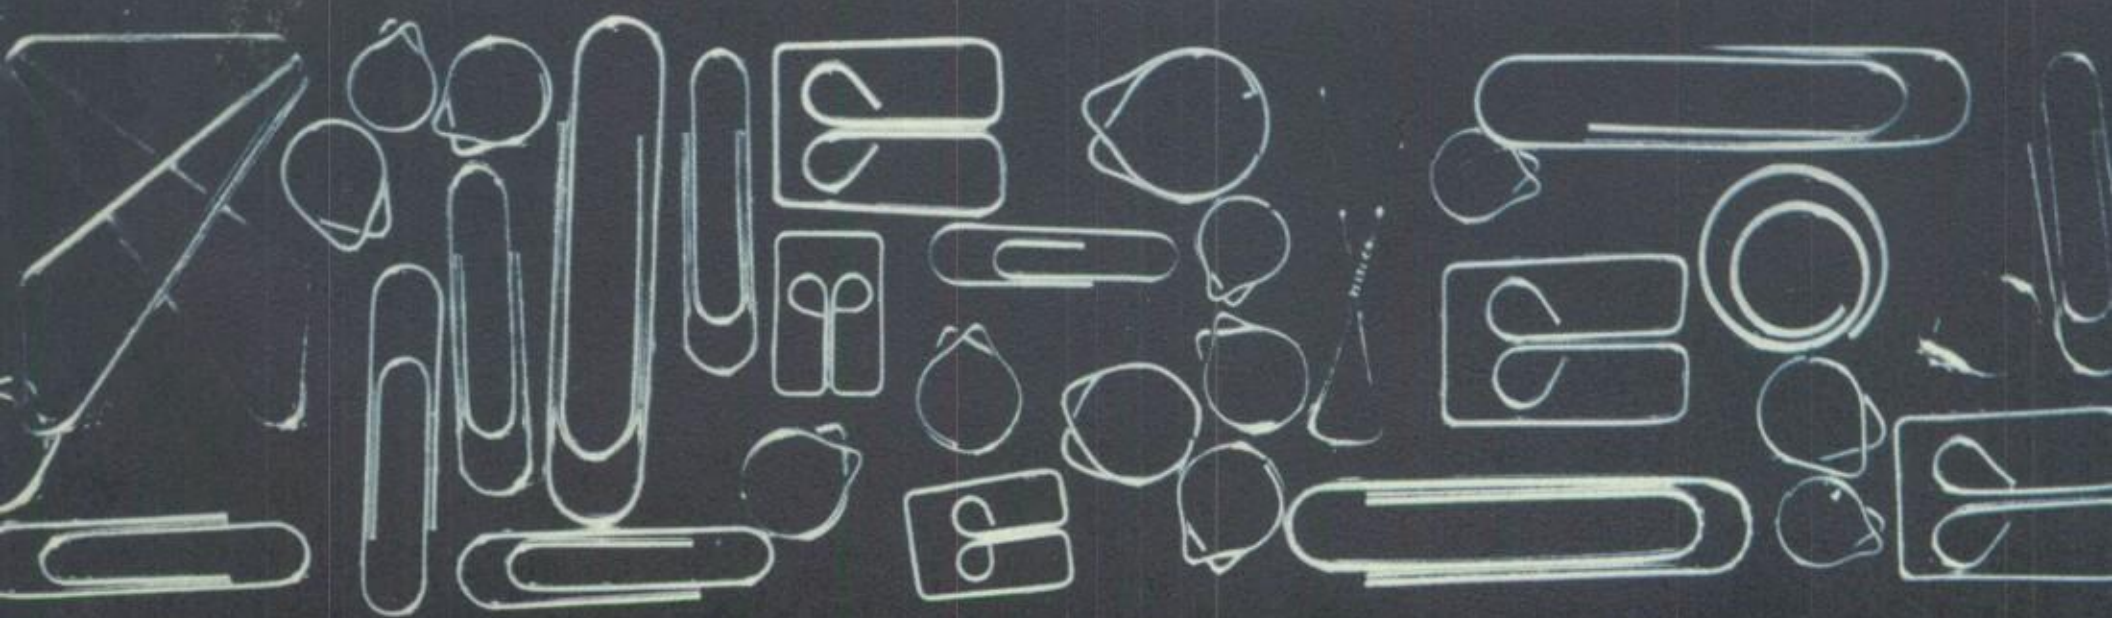

It is our hope that as you read this book, memories of a fond and enjoyable school year at Washington will be recalled and enjoyed again.

Dedication

All truly great people are found where their help is needed. Each of the department chairmen Mrs. Ahrens, Mrs. Madvig, and Mr. Burnett of Art, English, and Printing, respectively, have not only made the CONTINENTAL possible but have helped each one of us to understand and appreciate the world around us. They have also given us their valuable time. What greater contribution could anyone give to another? As they pass on their knowledge and experience, and as we become more aware of the world around us, we realize the importance of an education.

To show our appreciation and gratitude, we the Student Body would like to dedicate this book to you Mrs. Ahrens, Mrs. Madvig, and Mr. Burnett.

GIRLS' VICE

It is a pleasure to work as Girls' Vice Principal of Washington High School. I enjoy working with the girls and boys in planning the calendar, assemblies, and the social and class activities. We are proud of these fine activities and of Washington's school spirit as shown in the everyday behavior and appearance of our girls and boys. Congratulations to our two fine senior classes—the Celestians and the Viscounts.

Margaret McKee

PRINCIPAL

I sincerely trust that within the pages of this Continental you will recapture the memories of the past school year.

To have been profitable and enjoyable, 1961-62 should have brought you three things:

- the skill to think clearly, reason logically and judge fairly.
- the enjoyment of participation in school activities and friendships.
- the ambition to strive for greater goals.

I wish for each of you the attainment of those goals.

Wilson K. Jordan

BOYS' VICE

How is it possible to portray a feeling that has as many meanings as there are individuals? What essence is common to all Washingtonians, whether of the class of '32 or '62?

"Worthy Deeds Harmoniously Achieved" expresses the quality that constitutes the ideals of a General and the foundation of our spirit.

Sid Bruckman

Chuck and Carol lead the Generals

Individuality, adaptability, and the ability to work with others are the qualities necessary in the composition of the student body officers. Under the capable leadership of Chuck Huber and Carol Peterson, with the assistance of Elia Gomez, Bob Wagner, Linda Conrad, and Zaven Manjikian, the student council proved itself repeatedly to be one of the most effective in Washington's history.

This first dance of the semester, which was "The Big Top," was designed to acquaint all new students with campus activities at Generaltown. At this time, the Friendliest B10 Girl and Boy were introduced. The highly successful activity card drive and rally, sparked sports for the winter semester. The Student Council presented D'Arnell Pershing's Band at the A.F.S. Assembly to raise money for a Washington High School foreign exchange student next year. The election assembly and Student Body elections followed in a fast moving semester schedule.

Before Christmas vacation, the Toys for Tots drive and dance brought in nearly one thousand toys for Washington's adopted grammar school. This ended a busy semester, under the able supervision of Advisor Mr. Chris Caras.

The busy schedule of the Summer '62 Student Council started off with the ever successful Howdy Hop, known this semester as the Cherrytree Rock. Council sponsored activity, an "Oldies But Goodies" dance. This dance proved to be very popular among the students at Washington.

A new committee was formed in Council this semester to promote enthusiasm here at Washington. It is known as the School Spirit Committee. The campaign for a Clean Campus was again successful inasmuch as everyone left school twenty minutes early on Friday.

Besides organizing dances, campaigns, and various other student body activities the Council also engaged in adventures of their own. One of these events was the Herald-Examiner Youth Forum, which was attended by several delegates chosen from the Council. This was the climax of an event-filled semester for the elected leaders.

Boys' League

Boys' League membership consists of every boy at Washington. The cabinet is elected each semester. All boys may participate in the League's many activities. Boys' League sponsors the annual Auto Safety Check given by the California Highway Patrol. It also sponsors the Wrestling Tournament and helps to plan the Sadie Hawkins Dance along with the Girls' League. The Boys' League also co-sponsors the Boys' and Girls' League Assembly, where Georges and Marthas see films of such things as recent sporting events. During Boys' Week they take over administrative and teaching duties at our school.

Girls' League

Every girl at Washington is a member of Girls' League, and is led by an elected cabinet. At the beginning of each semester a Big and Little Sister party is held to acquaint new Marthas with Generalville traditions and people. In addition to cooperating with other campus organizations, Girls' League also sponsors the ever popular Sadie, held twice a year, and Cotton Day in May. They staffed a booth and sold candy apples at the Inter-Club Council Carnival, and during Girls' Week took over administrative and teaching duties.

CLASS SPONSOR
Mrs. Burton

- March 16, 1961. That was our day. On that day we officially became a class. We adopted the name Celestians and received our charcoal and blue sweaters. We were led through the summer semester by Chuck Huber our president and advised by Mrs. Bladholm our sponsor. Mardi Gras Magic, the prom we gave for the outgoing class was the highlight of this semester.
- Larry Fryer held the gavel during the fall semester and was assisted and advised by our new class sponsor Mrs. Burton. This semester was filled with activities. We entertained our parents at the Senior Parents' Tea and honored our outstanding class members at the Senior Breakfast. The class picnic was fun for all except perhaps those who overate but that's the hazard of all picnics. Our prom in January provided memories to last a lifetime. The climax to this semester was, of course, the commencement exercises.

Beautiful Queen inspires team to victory

The snap of flash blubs and the click of shutters sounded continuously throughout the 1961 football homecoming game October 6, 1961, at El Camino College, as Washington walloped South Gate 18-7. Impressing the audience with their unity and precision was the Drum and Bugle Corps. The band assisted with the pre-game flag raising exercises and marched at halftime. Highlighting the game was the halftime crowning of Elia Gomez as football homecoming queen. Serving as her court were princesses Gery Sue Olson, Molly Kyvik, Judy McKean and Roselena Urrutia. A white convertible, the shine of overhead lights, and the sparkle of a glittering crown all contributed to the splendor of the ceremonies.

In the summer of 1961, Washington sent its first American exchange student abroad. She was Sheryl Keith, who spent a wonderful two months in Aachen, Germany, with the Volker Aschoff's. After a ten day ocean voyage with 750 other students, she arrived at the home of her German family, adding to it to make a total of seven.

It is the hope of all those interested in the exchange program that in future years Washington High School will be able to both bring and send students each year.

This year Washington welcomed another American Field Service foreign exchange student, Malfrid Kyvik. She is a resident of Bekkelagshogda, Oslo, Norway.

Molly, as the students chose to call her, has been active in school affairs as well as taking six classes in the fall semester, including U. S. history, government, life drawing, and student council.

Here in Los Angeles, Malfrid is living with the Everett Halstead family, whose daughter formerly graduated from Washington.

Girls' State

L. Ihara

The purpose of Boys' and Girls' State was to teach the operation of State government to the delegates. Girls' State, held on the campus of the University of California at Davis, proved to several hundred girls that Whigs and Tories could get along socially and politically. Boys' State, held in Sacramento, gave the boys an opportunity to compete athletically and politically, the highlight of the session being a visit to the state capitol and a speech by Governor Brown.

to become seniors, enters Washington in September, 1959. After viewing several graduations and recognition days their long awaited day arrives. As they assemble in the Auditorium, an air of excitement and anticipation is sensed by all. The Standing Committee begins sweater distribution and class spirit becomes the goal of all present. As the room becomes a maze of cocoa and white, a class with its goal achieved, enthusiastically sings its songs, enjoys the entertainment put on by the members of its class, applauds its class officers and acknowledges its sponsor, Miss Carol Desser. Yes, October 20, 1961, is a day that will always be remembered by the Viscount Class of Summer '62.

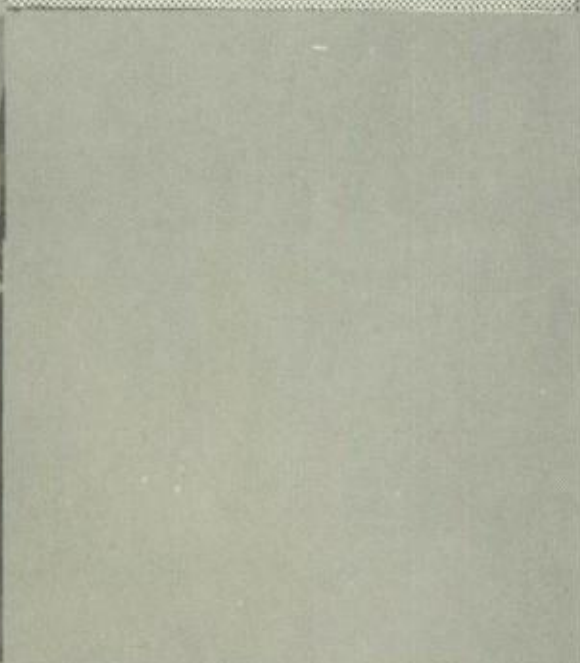

Recognition Day

"November 3rd is the date —ICC-C." This was the first form of advertising seen about Generaltown regarding the 5th annual I. C. C. Carnival. The thirty participating clubs all strived to make their booths different from one another. The long rows of exciting game booths were interlaced with hunger-satisfying and thirst quenching refreshment stands. Cabinet members rushed from booth to booth, whenever their assistance was required. Carnival trophies went to these outstanding clubs: G. A. A. for I.C.C. Cabinet Trophy, Pages for Best Decorated, and Squires for Most Popular.

Carnival

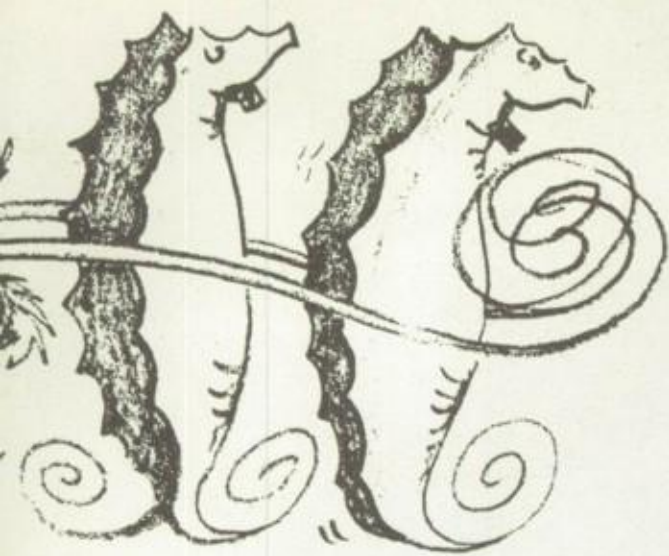

The beauty and splendor of autumn came alive as students danced among the coral and brown streamers of the semi-annual K & L. Held by the winter Knights and Ladies, the dance carried the theme of "Autumn Leaves." Rich Wilson and Alma McKay reigned as King and Queen. The girls' gym was filled with the music of Don Ricardo and his orchestra, which helped to make the dance a wonderful success.

Viscounts honor Celestians at semi-annual senior prom

The underwater magic of King Neptune created a dreamy atmosphere as the Viscounts honored the Celestians at the Semi-Annual Senior Prom. The music of Don Ricardo and his Orchestra provided the dancing mood as the evening progressed. The King, Larry Fryer, and Queen, Elia Gomez, reigned, as Coral Fantasy proved to be a wonderful success.

This year the Generals boasted one of the finest teams in their history. Guided by the superb coaching of Frank D'Alessandro, the powerful Washington Varsity rolled to an undisputed second place in the top-rated Southern League. With its only loss to Manual Arts, this year's City Champions, the inspired Washington team kept the fires of Washington burning in the hearts and minds of the "never-say-die" Army rooters. This exciting team, led by All Southern League and All City selections Piligian and Anderson, displayed the most explosive offense in the entire city. This remarkable team, improving with each game, proved to one and all what expert coaching and all-out team effort can do. The hard blocking and strong tackling of guards Davis and Wilson (captain), tackles Budman and Johnson, and center Carlson opened countless holes for the fleet Washington backs. Army's sticky fingered ends, Stumph and Mc-Glaughlin, served as fine targets for the fine passing of quarterbacks Young and Martinez. Two fleet wing-backs, Banks and Gatlin, rounded out the General's fine backfield. After a sensational season for our fine Varsity, the cry of "Wait till next year" is finally gone from Washington.

Manual Arts

"Mash Manual" was the universal thought as the Generals met the Toilers on Hughes Field. The highly rated Generals were unable to cope with Manual's gigantic line, as the Toiler's backs gained huge chunks of yardage almost at will. Touchdown jaunts by Clayton Calhoun and Jones Williams proved to be too much for the Generals, as Army's only consolation came on a pass from quarterback Terry Young to Estes Banks, who raced 39 yards for a touchdown. The Toilers added a safety, running the score 23 - 7.

Dorsey

A throng of almost 3,000 fans looked on as Washington rolled to its first league victory of the season. The first quarter was scoreless, but in the second quarter a 25 yard field goal by Andy Piligian enabled the Generals to come off the field at half time leading 3 - 0.

The only touchdown of the game came on a 34 yard jaunt by Andy Anderson. The extra point by Piligian made the score 10 - 0, and that was the way the game ended.

Fremont

Before several thousand stunned spectators, the Generals performed the impossible. For the first time in twelve long years, the Washington Varsity defeated Fremont. This was perhaps the most exciting game ever played on Hughes Field.

When the Pathfinders ran the score to 26 - 13 in the final quarter, it appeared that Army's cause was lost. Then with miraculous team blocking, Estes Banks ran the Fremont kick-off back 91 yards for a Washington score. When Mike Gatlin executed a brilliant onside kick, the Generals were back in the ball game. With just three minutes left Terry Young hit wingback Mike Gatlin with a 32 yard pass, tying the game. Andy Piligian then added the conversion, the biggest one in his life, bring a 27 - 26 victory for Washington. Army had its greatest victory of the decade, and the cry of "Wait 'till next year" was gone from Generaltown.

Jefferson

With the Democrats hosting Washington, the Generals performed the almost impossible feat of shutting-out their second consecutive Southern League opponent.

Army was definitely the superior team, but the inspired Demos managed to hold the game scoreless through the first half.

After half time the complexion of the game changed as the Generals score two quick touchdowns, the first one a 65 yard run by Mike Gatlin and the second a line smash by Andy Piligian.

In the fourth quarter the Generals tallied for a third touchdown to make the final score 20 - 0.

Los Angeles

With one of the greatest offensive displays in history of Washington High School, the Generals "squashed" Los Angeles High 44 - 7. This victory over last year's Southern League Champions gave the Generals undisputed second place in the powerful Southern League.

The Generals were sparked by a tremendous team effort. Led by Anderson and Piligian, who together score 35 points, the Generals showed the power and depth which enabled them to enjoy their finest season since 1949.

BEE

Following the same trend as our Varsity, Army's midget gridsters had a fine season. The General Bees, led by quarterback and most valuable player Dean Rueter, rolled to decisive wins over Fremont and Manual earning over Fremont and Manual, earning them fourth place in the powerful Southern League. End Morales and halfback Smith were also vital links in the Army attack. With many returning lettermen for next year's squad, the prospects will be bright for another strong team and an even finer season.

High spirited Generals lead us in song and cheer

Sharon Kidder

Washington's songleaders mustered every ounce of song and spirit from Generals to spark athletic teams to victory. Possessing an endless repertoire of songs, these peppy girls represent the student body in tune and time.

Screaming, "Come on, you guys, Yell!" at football games and "Yama, Yama" at track meets were Washington's lively cheerleaders. The peppiest team on campus, these representatives of spirit led Generals in all cheers.

RUSS CROWTHER
WAYNE DODD

It was a lean, frustrating year for Tom McCullough's varsity hoopsters. With Fremont and Jefferson finishing first and second, respectively, in the city finals, and the remaining Southern League teams boasting strong squads, Army was unable to gain a single league victory. The Generals did manage pre-season victories over Huntington Park and Reseda, but were unable to cope with their formidable opponents. The Generals were led by their top scorer and all league selection Mike Coray, and guard Steve Murray proved to be a fine floor leader as he was voted the team's most valuable player. The fine board work of Leon Layton, Russ Crowther, and Dennis Weverka, and fine guard play by Wayne Varner and Wayne Dodd were also key factors in the Generals' limited success.

This year the mighty General Bees proved to be a big boost to Washington basketball. This spirited squad proved what real determination and fine team play can do for a ball club. Army, although outsized many times, fought hard on the boards and shot well in compiling a fine 9-6 season record. Their excellent 5-5 league included victories over Dorsey and powerful Manual Arts, and was good enough for a strong third place in Southern League. The Generals were led in scoring by forward Alvin Andry, with center Lee Crow and forward Chuck Hulse providing strong rebounding. In the backcourt, Glenn Osajima and Bob Moreno did some fine outside shooting in leading the club. Coach Bob White, who did a superb coaching job, called this squad his best in many a year.

Learning to dive

The girls' swimming team is full of spirit this year. The large class of over sixty girls is anxious to learn the many graceful dives that their talented instructor, Mrs. Howell, has to teach them. Along with life-saving and learning to dive, the girls enjoy a really wonderful time. Among the outstanding swimmers in the advanced class are Marie Ornee and Marilyn Lopez. All the girls together express true enthusiasm in this wholesome sport.

Cross Country

This year, Coach Joe Barry's cross country squads posted excellent records. The Varsity, led by George Wright, Judson Porter, George Henry, and Lucius Montgomery earned a strong third place in the Southern League. The Tenth-Graders, led by Glenn Blach also gained a third place league finish. The bright spot of the season, however, was Army's magnificent J. V. team, who rolled to the league and city championship. With almost everyone back for next year, and many fine runners up from the J. V.'s, the Generals can look forward to an even greater season next year.

"Getting the Olive" was the main obstacle confronting this year's varsity nine. Although the club was by far the best in recent years in ability, it seemed to lack the poise of being able to play on their own diamond. Many of the standouts who, in their first two years showed outstanding promise, failed to live up to their expectations. "The team as a whole was all shook up," said Coach Bob White. The club was also hindered by frequent injuries. Banks was out most of the season, and Martinez had continual arm trouble. The chance now shows a sure second place, but "Whitney" still hopes for the big one.

Terry Young, who is playing his last season for Army, rates as one of the greats in Bob White's book of all time great catches. Young, who is also quite a man with the "stick", has been one of the most valuable assets to Washington athletics since he started here in the Spring of 1960.

The prospect of the "diamond boys" in the near future is very good. Along with our fine coaching and the overwhelming enthusiasm of Army rooters, we can't help but have a fine club next year.

TRACK

Washington cindermen were simply fantastic in '62, as usual the Southern League again proved to be too much for the Generals. Army finished a strong third behind the probable city champs, Fremont and Jefferson. It is likely that these were the only two schools strong enough to handle the Generals.

In the century, Nathan Ashberry and Mike Gatlin consistently scored, both having season bests of 9.9. In the 220, it was again Ashberry, running a 22.0, with John Mayberry running well in this event also. The quarter had Ted Davis running 49.7, with Gatlin and Mayfield close behind at 51.0. Army boasted the finest half milers in the league, Davis running a 1:59.9, and George Wright grinding out a sensational 1:58. At Generaltown, the name Andy Anderson and hurdles are synonymous. Andy was consistent winner in both hurdle events and received fine support from hurdler Aun France Reid. The around ability of Anderson and Gatlin proved to be Army's salvation in the broad jump, both consistently over 22 feet. Washington had the finest trio of shot putters in the city, Stumpf, Johnson, and Staten. Stumpf had a season best of 52'52", while Johnson managed a 51'10" put. Richard Hatch and Dan Mumey brought consistent points in the pole vault, Hatch clearing 12'10", while Mumey did 12'. In the final varsity event, the mile, Army boasted two of the city's best; George Wright ran an excellent 4:31.5, with Jud Porter scoring with a sensational 4:28.5.

This was a heartbreaking season for the Generals who had the potential for a league champion, but even with this, they enjoyed the finest season in track in many a year. The most outstanding marks of the year were turned in by Bee hurdler P. Keery, who perhaps is the best Bee hurdler in California. His marks of 13.0 and 8.6 are by far the best in the city for this event. With many returning lettermen for next year, and the hurdle strength given by Kerry, the Generals will again have a strong squad, and will definitely be a league contender.

This year Washington's tennis team is one of the finest in recent history. Composed of many outstanding athletes it has already won a majority of its matches. It is a fairly well ballanced squad with several good singles men, led by Dave Braun, and good doubles teams. Coach D'Alessandro expects many successful tennis players in the near future as he has many fine younger players.

Washington's Gymnastic Team this year is a far cry from the strong, highly experienced team of last year. The squad is made-up mainly of Juniors and Sophomores, lacking Seniors greatly. Two stand-outs on this year's squad are Tim Johnson and Terry Sakata. The future of this young team, as quoted from Coach Jim Cokas, "is very excellent indeed."

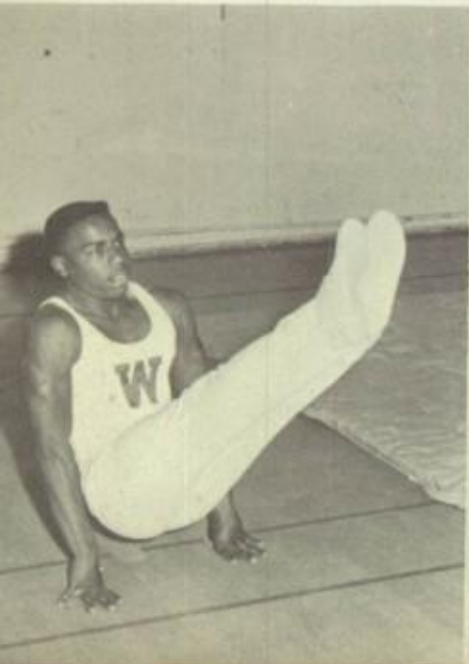

While this team is just an average Army team, it has already won its first League meet over Manual Arts.

A surprise may yet be in store for the Southern League strogmen, Fre and Los Angeles, but if this is not to be, we know we can look to the future for a very fine squad of musclemen.

STEVE SACHS

Although the General swim season is as yet not completed, Army's fish-men have already experienced the finest season in their history. With sensational performances, the Generals have met and soundly beaten all Southern League opponents thus far in competition. Army has thus earned a tie for first place, and with the forthcoming Los Angeles meet being the decider. The varsity was led by record shattering performances by Chris Shield (butterfly), Steve Chapman (freestyle), and Bill Lyon (breast stroke). Varsity swimmers Farr, Stenken, and York have also contributed outstanding marks. The Bees and Cees also recorded many excellent marks, and had much the same success as the Varsity, both having chances for top league honors. This year's teams are primarily young squads, and with this, Coach Tom McCullough can look forward to another fine season next year.

Continental Staff

Serving as the "people behind the scenes," the Continental staff consists of the students who wrote copy, identified pictures, typed, and arranged print on the pages of your annual. Art Editor Jade Neely and English Editor Jim Plummer diligently labored to meet all deadlines and spurred the staff on in times of stress. Continental Advisor Mrs. Kay Herbert ironed out all differences between staffs, and brought them to a common unity. Choosing the theme, cover, and type are just a portion of the duties performed to make the '62 Continental the best ever.

Every society has its news medium, and being an educational society for 3,300 students, Washington's activities and events are presented in print to the student body in the form of the Surveyor. The staff works endlessly to meet deadlines and develop pictures so that the newspaper will be ready each Friday. Under the able supervision of Mr. Soderberg, adviser, the Surveyor has won national awards, in addition to many local honors.

Surveyor Staff

The Washington Print Shop, under the supervision of "Doc" Burnett, has contributed greatly to the success of this year's Continental. Along with the expert of "Doc" and crew, the yearbook material flowed rapidly from the presses. Many countless hours were spent setting type, running proofs, and delivering final copies. It is to the Print Shop that much of the credit for the success of this year's annual is attributed.

IN APPRECIATION

The Continental is a book of many faces. Some of these have been plainly evident to you as you have read this book. Not so obvious, however, are the efforts and many hours that go into the publication of a book like this. Your annual is the result of the combined efforts of many people. It is the purpose of this page to thank those who have contributed to the success of Continental '62.

Mrs. Kay Herbert receives the thanks not only of the editors but of the entire staff. She led us through our daily trials and encouraged us when our spirits were low.

The Art and English staffs deserve a special note of appreciation. Striving to meet deadlines, they often worked long after school hours. Credit for our fine sports section goes to Sports Editors Bob Moreno and Tom Spears. The tedious task of typing countless names for the index was done by Deanna Baugh and Marti Ziegelmeyer. Responsibility for the advertising section was given to Tom Legbandt and Carol Chamberlain. Numerous senior portrait appointments were made by Mary Grider, Kathi Bivens, and Linda Koenig. Layouts and copy were finished by other hard-working members of these staffs.

The Art Department was responsible for the posters used in our advertising campaign. Under the capable supervision of Mr. Samuel Uskevich, these art students contributed much to the success of our sales drive.

Credit for printing goes to our Washington Print Shop. Directed by Russell "Doc" Burnett, these hard-working students produced all the proofs and final copies of the print found in this year's Continental. The Editors would like to thank especially "Doc" Burnett, who gave us so much advice and help with the typographical section of our annual.

Appreciation for general assistance is given to administrators Mr. Wilson Jordan, Miss Margaret McKee, and Mr. Sid Brickman. Mrs. Ila Driver and her financial office managed our highly successful sales campaign which we greatly appreciated.

Outstanding photographs and helpful photographic advice are a credit to Anthony Loya and his assistants at the Anthony Loya Studios. Advice on layouts and design was rendered by Mr. Jack Cannicott of the Los Angeles Engraving Company. Bookbinders Incorporated combined our covers from the S. K. Smith Engraving Company with our pages from the Los Angeles Engraving Company, to complete the publication of Continental '62.

To you, the student body, we owe a special vote to thanks. Without your help, this year's annual would not have been possible. We think Continental '62 is worthy of your purchase, and we are confident that you will be proud of it in years to come.

Don,
Not those we hate,
but ones we love, cause
us the worst of pains.
Love, Susan

Don,
I hope that, in the many years to come, you will look back at the good times we shared together. I hope also that we will remain close throughout the years to come and that graduation will not be the end, but the beginning of a warm and lasting friendship.
Love, Linda

Best of everything to my Number One Architect son -
Love always,
Your second mom
